

PATAGONIA COYAHAIQUE, CHILE

Join the Henry's Fork Foundation for the best dry fly fishing for Brown and Rainbow Trout in South America. Located near the town of Coyhaique, this area offers anglers the ability to walk and wade or float pristine waters. For sight fishing, spring creeks and lakes for trophy trout abound in this region of Patagonia. Combine this amazing fishing environment with professional local fishing guides, specialized equipment, developed techniques, gourmet lunches and at the end of the day enjoy a delicious meal accompanied by tasty Chilean wine in a comfortable and cozy lodge.
